Greetings! In Romans 16, St. Paul uses the words "greet" or "greets" 20 times. Obviously, he wanted the Christians to be open to one another in a spirit of love and concern. With just such an attitude in our minds and hearts, let us warmly greet one another.

Visitors please fill in your name & address and place this bulletin in an offering plate:

CHORAL INTROIT

ANNOUNCEMENTS

CALL TO WORSHIP:

Leader: Come and worship Jesus Christ, the image of the invisible God, through whom all things were created.
People: We come to worship the One who is before all things and in whom all things hold together.
Leader: Christ is Lord over creation, Lord over the Church, and Lord over all powers and authorities
People: We come to give Him first place in our hearts, our lives, and our worship.
Leader: In Christ, the fullness of God was pleased to dwell.
People: Through His cross, He has made peace and reconciled us to God.
Leader: Let us lift our praise to the King of Kings and Lord of Lords.
People: We worship Christ alone, for He is worthy of all honor, glory, and praise!
